APM Terminals Inland Services, South Asia celebrates Global Safety Day 2015

- 'Safe at home and safe at work' was the underlying theme for Global Safety Day celebrations
- Fatal 5 – A new company-wide program on safety announced

Mumbai_4th May, 2015:

28th February - The Global Safety Day was celebrated across all locations of APM Terminals Inland Services in India. Based on the theme - 'Safe at work, Safe at Home', various innovative initiatives were launched and activities conducted.

With participation from over 1400 individuals from a cross section of employees, blue collar workers and their family members, contractor staff, transport union members, Customs House agents and customs officials, the event helped sensitize them on safety through activities like demonstrations on firefighting, exhibition of personal protective equipments, safety walks, screening of safety films.

Special discussions and contests for Truck drivers on safety within the yard led to very fruitful conversations and suggestions on further action points for increasing the safety for them.

Post card painting, on-the-spot quiz contests for kids and stakeholders, street plays on Fatal 5, safety photoframe distribution and yard visit by family members were some of the highlights of engagement initiatives. Induction cooker for families and emergency light were distributed to Reach stacker operators. In addition, Safety Hero awards and rewards were given out to different stakeholders who demonstrated high commitment to safety standards.

Speaking on the occasion Mr. R K Sreedhar, MD and CFO, APM Terminals India Private Ltd., said: "Global Safety Day celebration is a way to reinforce our commitment towards keeping our people safe and secure. APM Terminals Inland Services South Asia believes in safety first and this belief overrides all business activities. Safety for life is our key guiding principle at all times."
